INITIATING YOUR INTERNAL MULTI-SENSORY SELF ~ USING YOUR GOLDEN COMPASS PART II: THE SOUL ON FIRE

Is your SOUL on fire? What does that mean? Anytime you are not in serenity or in balance your soul is on fire, calling you to listen. When you get close to truth, you call in chaos, because you are afraid. When you are in fear you're living in chaos; remember that you can be in the chaos, but not of the chaos. When life moves into chaos, Divine Creator is trying to reach you. Chaos is not bad, it is change, do not fear it rather use it as fuel to walk through it.

There is a spiritual hunger or thirst (desire) for something more... each of you has your own something and your thirst to quench it. In ordinary times you call it EGO, in spiritual essence you call it communion (coming into union). Your spiritual essence is a gift from Divine Creator. SPIRITS ONLY task is to serve the being of the body; spirit nurtures the ego to knock on the door to the 'SOUL' ~ therefore, spirit is of the body and soul is of the Divine. You can dance with SPIRIT, but you can't get into the SOUL; you must become your SOUL and then you transform into a LIVING EMBODIMENT OF LOVE. Remember that you are multi-sensory beings longing to trust the unknown and the majority of the human condition fear what they do not know. This is the key that holds you back. Use the 'key' to unlock your multi-sensory beingness or use it to navigate your Golden Compass. As we said to you before, navigation of your compass is up to you! We have shared with you the internal CHAMBER (SEAL) called Union, in our discourse this month we will continue with focus on the 2nd & 3rd chambers, which include your Ego-Self and Power Center in alignment with your CHAKRA'S, the ENDOCRINE SYSTEM, and the CORRESPONDING ELEMENTS that in combination assist on unlocking your SOULFUL SELVES.

The Prophecy of Union is in progress of being fulfilled. As you enter the timeless mystical interior of your body (which is the holy temple) you will ignite your white brain matter where the silica in your brain (implants within the cosmic body) will send different impulses allowing for your awakening. All the space between your cells is the Cosmic Consciousness which exists within every human body that is awaiting your awakening. When the seven chambers are perfectly balanced, the universal connective vibration aligns the spiritual to the physical to receive a new encoding of Light and humanities organic consciousness revives itself into your natural alignment of Union, Self-realization, Wholeness, Remembrance, Truth, Wisdom, and becoming once again All Knowing Illuminated Beings of Love and Light. This level of Being has nothing to do with 'personal ego' or thought as you know it. The Cosmic Laws, Cosmic Thought (Divinity) and Cosmic Truth align your Golden Compass and you return in the One, for the One and by the One.

The progression of initiating the seven chambers will accelerate you into a deeper spiritualization progression. Do realize, however, that this is truly a process which takes one through many levels and many aspects of morphing and into recurring, rhythmic patterns of purification and renewal. Each individual's experience will be unique and based on your soul's purpose of incarnating, the wisdom to be gained and any remaining karma, emotional, mental, physical and spiritual patterns that need to be resolved and transmuted. It is also in accordance with one's level of surrender, acceptance and readiness to accelerate forward into higher consciousness and Christed state of love and union.

The topic will continue in our next M.O.M discourse, for now, we'll share with you the Chamber of Self-Realization and Wholeness and we'll break it down into four categories they are: 1) Chamber, 2) Chakra, 3) Endocrine System and 4) the Corresponding Elements. We will write a 1 page Discourse on each Chamber, it is vital to understand that SOUND or FREQUENCY of the Seal is the key to opening it. Another thing to take note is that you can attain the frequency, but you cannot sustain it. The reason for that is the top of one mountain is the bottom of the next, so as liken to the universe it is always expanding and contracting on itself.

Initiating the Seven Sacred Chambers

2nd Chamber...

Self Realization

The condition for the second chamber is Ego-self and the imprint from Prime Source is Self Realization

The energy of the second chamber is “Self Realization.” When you experienced separation from Union you experienced the self for the first time. Humanity ate from the tree that contained “secret knowledge” as the birth of feelings became a deeper way of knowing. Your emotions began to flow through you as raging waters while your body’s energy swells and peaks with a new identity or your own unique fingerprint of individuality ~ the birth of the Ego-self. Along with this realization of ego-self, came self doubt and self denial. You began to ask who you are and why you’re here or why you feel like earth is not your home. Eventually you completely lost your spiritual identity and bought into the mass consciousness with a lesser aspect of self. Instead of offering innovative and vital insight into the human condition, your emotions have been reduced to programmed reactions by the collective circumstances you experience.

You have been on a profound journey of discovery collecting all aspect of self and reacting to aspects that you are not. Throughout your lifetimes, you have been continually scolded that self is bad, self is wrong, and self is not to be trusted. In this chamber you have become conditioned energies of self denial, unworthiness with blocked and confused emotions which has created an intensity of fear, doubt and self condemnation. You have held an archaic belief that you are not good enough, smart enough, or worthy enough to receive from the heavenly well of unlimited grace and abundance which is your original divine imprint.

As the second chamber is initiated, it brings one into self-realization and self understanding. Self begins to remember the whole of the journey. This is where you realize that you do have value and purpose and it is a precious gift that dwells within you called Spirit which allows you the expansiveness of creation. All personal experiences, including suffering are valued and deeply appreciated as wisdom is renewed and reflection of ones journey deems divine order and flow based on the choices you’ve made. Initiating this chamber releases all of the remaining fear and doubt of self condemnation and one is able to actively step out of the wheels of karma through the accentuation of the soul-self instead of choosing the egocentric self.

In initiating this chamber, one also evolves from collective consciousness to a state of individualization and sovereignty. When self is realized in wholeness, truth and compassion, all aspects of self reconnects with union and is enlightened in limitless consciousness of God realized in Self.

Initiating the Seven Sacred Chambers

3rd Chamber...

Wholeness

The condition for the third chamber is duality and the imprint from Prime Source is Wholeness.

The energy of the third chamber arises out of the power center (solar plexus) and carries with it the illusion associated with duality or the great polarity. You have allowed yourselves to believe that there is a power opposite to God. Sometimes this power is cloaked as light and shadow or seemingly good and evil. Many institutions still teach that one must choose between one or the other and that choice will determine one's destiny. However each of you is authentic and has the power of individual choice and it is your own 'personal' choice that marks the path of which you walk towards your own Union and Self-Realization into Wholeness.

In giving your power away to the illusion of shadow, a deep motivating fear has developed filling your thoughts with doom and gloom and expectations towards the fulfillment of desire. As your thoughts create your seeming reality, many stumbling blocks were laid upon your path which can be attributed to the vibration of fear or the games where struggle and disharmony plague you again and again stinging in a silent moment of rest. The "shadowed forces" as you have labeled them have gifted you with this game or tug of war because you've asked for soulful growth for your expansion as you journeyed towards a greater understanding of life. The shadowed forces are your own belief systems or conditioned mind patterns of self doubt and discord. What you think about, you call to you, so began to be aware of your thoughts. If you don't like your life circumstances reflect on your thoughts. Think about 'new' possibilities and begin to believe them, the outcome of your life circumstances will change. What you believe you become and what you become is a result of your belief system. This is a universal law.

This energy of duality is simply the misunderstanding of wholeness or empowerment. One does not give up their power they merely forgot to empower themselves. The more you focus on the outside of you and give away your power to choose, the more duality presents itself; it is a tangled dance with self seeking wholeness. This is the chamber and chakra where your original light resides (solar plexus); the fire is always lit and awaits a stoking of the truth in order to ignite it. Before you can rebuild your life you must come to know peace, and in order to know peace one must excavate where you are empowered and where you are not. Do not give your power away, but allow your own power to stoke the confidence within you to make you stronger to move forward in self discovery within yourself and outside of yourself.

This chamber can potentially be very powerful when one learns to experience self control and subdue the associated urges of anger, uncontrolled behavior and impulsive reactions. The chamber opens as one awakens and nourishes your personal power into one of grace, compassion, loving forgiveness and kindness to all. Initiating this chamber brings back a complete love and respect of self and perfected balance of the inner feminine (dark) and masculine (light) energies as one. The illusion of duality integrates into awareness that all energy is form the same source of light and love and one returns to Wholeness.
