A New HOPE ~ Town Meeting (gathering for the people)

Children of love and light, the world may seem to hold pain, fear sickness and deep uncontrollable outcomes only because your mind analyses what you see and show you examples of life which are contrary to perfection. The mind brings forth contrast and opens the door to confusion that creation is good, but you're not able to control it. Reality is a perspective and the contrast is a direction of your energy and how it flows. In corresponding appreciation it increases in potency and in opposing flow, it calls opposing energy to it. The universal law of attraction is vital and potent – what you believe you become and what you become is a result of your belief system. The secondary contrast to this law is what you need to learn you call to you; this is the call for love, which has been gleaned as fear. Fear does not exist only as you give it power to hold you hostage, and if you're doing the holding then you are the only one that can open the gate of release.

There is much happening in your world as you perceive it, but we tell you this, there is a turning point of catalyst energy which we shared with you earlier last year. It has been coined by your newly elected leader in America's as "Hope Won." Winning and Loosing are the same in truth, there is no force opposing you and all you need to do is enjoy the world. The acceleration in life is an intense energy and is a river upon which you live and carries you into enlightenment; this is your DNA, the silver cord of life that is and has always been connected to Prime Creator. All are awakening; the dark ones are awakening for they too are beings of light. They are everything you are only they have directed their energy into the opposition of flow.

We offer you a forum to discuss your thoughts in a circle of love during our November 2008 Message of the Master's forum.

What we touched on:

- TULA is the new earth that is upon you, Gaia is going through a cleansing which has direct affects on your ley lines (rivers of energy that flow through you).
- There are 13 controlling bloodlines that control your current financial institutions which are unraveling at the edges; they are known as the Illuminate. Since the inception of your "free world" called United States, George Washington gave full rein to Hamilton to set up the Federal Reserve which was imported from Britain via Hamilton while your governing councils were being formed. The National Economic Security and Reformation Act (NASARA) was initiated in the early 1980's formally called the National Economic Stabilization and Recovery Act via Dr. Harvey Wilkes Bernard and in the 1990's was put under 'vault' with ramifications of death if initiated. This act is designed to replace income tax with national sales tax, abolishing compound interest loans and returning bi-metallic currency which could result in 0% inflation.
- There are 3 degree's of familiarity that govern your choice making, they are: Seeing, Feeling and Being. You're ruled by your feelings and seeing is an illusion, to truly see one must have an open heart thereby becoming your true self, (Soulful self), a Human-Being, not a human seeing or a human-feeling. Your feelings were gifted to you as a point of choice to allow yourself to experience. Rule of thumb, don't worry about things, anxiety does not serve you!

- Transcendence is about being that of which you desire. You have addictions to the "hall of mirrors" what you think you see and with these addictions you experience either love or fear. The mass of humanity are attached to your visions which are 'ego demands.' The critical mind which is driving some crazy. 90,000 thoughts a day all come from the critical mind or ego framework! Becoming and living your true desire is what will catapult you into truth which is 'true transcendence' or illumination! In order to get here, you'll need to transcend your thoughts about yourself and others. This is the great illusion!
- You're governed by matter base belief systems; it is the anti-matter that you'll need to become familiar with. To do this you'll need to get in touch with the 'hyper-space' realms throughout your body or down to the 'cell base.' Unconsciousness is experienced in the matter base though patterns. Consciousness exists within the hyperspace streams or within your DNA. Your DNA is fused within your blood and embodies varied frequencies within all aspects of your DNA; the greatest frequency is within your blood. Your DNA hyperspace streams into universal realms or Prime Creation. The Silver Cord of life that connects you to all consciousness.
- On 11/11/08 the Crystal Gateway was fused into the Golden Matrix of creation which is connected to truth, clarity, abundance, creativity, harmony and oneness and initiated 'service to other perspective.' This is controlled by your own consciousness (awareness), the left side of your brain is connected to 'matter' understanding (the egocentric self). The Right side of your brain is connected to 'anti-matter' understanding (the soulful self). So in other words 11/11 signifies Oneness Frequency bands of all you are!
- The vortex of 'life' speeds up and increases and intensifies all energies you resonate with, wish for and need. Your collective consciousness is now at a cosmic level of frequency band. Or otherwise known as the Master Frequency of 11. You'll need to deal with the static level of interference in your mind before you're able to still your brain chatter. This will take deliberate concentration on 'no mind' thought patterns.

And so it is.....
