A time for Renewal

Emotional clearing is vital; you've probably been feeling massive conflict within your choice points of life (as it was, meaning your confidence is marginal and at times confusable). You've entered into the Master Year "eleven" where all things are possible. The Master Number Eleven is directly connected to your heart centers. Heart energy must be aligned with your will (an invisible force of energy will align you to your 'hearts desire' – that invisible force is your soulful self). We have recently asked our channel to share with you that "Prime Creator" does not want you to be successful, rather having faith. We have received many comments regarding this statement as we hoped for. Your successes are aligned with your belief of success or conditioned mind patterns with a definition of what success means. Our perspective of success is that each and every one of you within the physical embodiment of the Global Village (Earth Plane) is successful already. To coin the phrase, "been there, done that." If you've 'ever' helped one person in all your life without any intention of receiving anything in response to your giving, you are considered successful from our perspective! In truth, the Master number of eleven has always been available to you and you've always been living it. What is it? Simply put, it's TRUTH. Living in truth is becoming a 'living embodiment of love' with is truth incarnate. This is the renewal we're speaking of.

The New Earth is present in this now moment and humanity is at a threshold and a cusp of tremendous shifts within your global villages. The first shift is required within your 'heart' centers. To follow the heart means that you live in truth. To live in truth, one must have faith; to have faith requires tapping into your golden compass of power (your internal power) – recall if you will our discourse with you about your 12 senses versus your understanding of 5 senses. Use your internal compass for truthful navigation. If you hold on to the 5 external senses to navigate, you'll surely fall into the trap of the black alliance (founders of fear). You are the only one to help yourself; you cannot depend on anyone but you. The survival of the human race depends on the continuity of truth. The Global Village has fallen from the grace of peace. Not from natural disaster, the fall came from the 'creator's of fear' to alter your destiny as followers instead of individual creator's of life, in the One, for the One, by the One and of the One – the Prime Creative force which you are and have come to represent in 'hu-man form.'

You must enter the secret chamber through your internal compass which activates your true DNA and links you to your Light Body. The time for remembrance has come; the time for renewal is NOW. This is the internal compass that we're talking of, once you initiate this chamber you'll automatically move into the chamber of truth, the 5th dimension of your embodiment. This is the chamber of the throat center, which automatically connects you to your 'zeal point' The Medulla Oblongata, where your passions reside, often called "the mouth of God."

The Star Ship of Sirius is once more activated in the universal skies over your Capital Building in Washington D.C. The Kalob is once again aligned within the frequency of humanity through your will-full focus on the Inauguration set on 1/20/2009. This is a sacred portal and is renewing your golden matrix for connection on the frequency of Faith which is the theme for this Master year. Your President elect will walk up 33 steps to the Capital Building, where your new chosen leader will come to the 'people' and swears his allegiance to you and in your presence before he enters into contract with you and therefore gets his 'power' to represent you all as a 'collective' entity. This is a grass roots effort where the people's voice will once more be heard, your hearts must be open in order for your voice to be heard. The lightness of your heart helps you to find blessedness, to ascend you as a collective consciousness into a 'Renewed' resonance. The resonance we are speaking of is the 'original' blueprint for your country which is a New Utopia. The happiness you've all been waiting for is upon you, in ancient times blessedness meant, Life, Liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Which came to be represented by the goddess of justice (blind justice where the heart was weighed and if heavy tipped the scale) which is Liberty herself. This is only the beginning and with new beginnings come much growth. Open hearts and open minds are a requirement.

Major shifts will be initiated; between February 13-15 your alignment of "the age of Aquarius" actually aligns; you must have your hearts in the right place. Your global village will shift from energy of gathering wealth, to an energy of gathering joy. Allow your energy to be used within the following 3 components; 1) Imagine, 2) Believe and 3) Live your truth as beings of love through the power of right use of your energy, intension, thought, and actions.

And so it is.....
