Charging your Spiritual Power - A New Vision ~ a world reborn Separation of thinking & awareness....

Are you ignoring that inner voice within you that is calling for a 'change or attention' in 'not' wanting to 'do' what you're doing? Do you find yourself unsatisfied in most everything you're involved in within your life actions? This is the first step to your 'awakening' and your 'soulful' self is calling you to break away from your habits and perpetual actions that hold you hostage in a life you are not living fully. You have become (or created) a human 'doing' basically doing activities that you know (conditioned mind patterns) for a perceived freedom that once brought you great anticipated pleasure. So what holds you hostage beside the obvious (yourself)? It is not a world of democracy that you're experiencing; rather it is a world of Guilt (bound by a fear-based reality where punishment awaits you). Democracy is not so much about agreement as it is about respect for different points of view. For democracy to work, people who have different ideas and values must be able to be heard.

Guilt lives in secrecy and it surfaces when you become restless, it is shadow, the absence of love or light. It does not serve you, yet your addictive behaviors have become so toxic that you and so many others feel bound to them; you don't know how to break away. This is when 'death' invites you to make a change. When we speak of death we're talking about a natural cleansing or reformation that is constant within every breath and within every cell of your embodiment and your external perceived world. You die to every moment, yet you've been taught that death is the finality of you, we're here to share the truth with you and that is death is a part of the every changing creative force. The only cell within your embodiment that does not die is cancer cells, cancer is a vacation from death, and they consume themselves to a point of destroying their host (your body). Remember you are the light of the world you are transcendent and infinite; it is time to recognize that you are the beginning and the ending in the now moment and you have just begun to unleash your power. It is imperative that you get out of your intellect and into your 'heart-mind' which is the placeholder of love, the seat of the soul and the doorway to truth.

We have shared with you that the astrological alignment of the Age of Aquarius is upon you and it is true...

Major shifts will be initiated; between February 13-16 your alignment of "the age of Aquarius" actually aligns; you must have your hearts in the right place. Your global village will shift from energy of gathering wealth, to energy of gathering joy. Allow your energy to be used within the following 3 components; 1) Imagine, 2) Believe and 3) Live your truth as beings of love through the power of right use of your energy, intension, thought, and actions.

The astrological alignment will find Pluto in the house of Capricorn for the next twenty years. Pluto rules breakdowns and allows for infrastructures to be rebuilt. Your planetary grid will experience many disruptions until late July 2009. The Aquarian alignment literally takes place February 13-16th but the configuration or breakthrough does not begin until the Spring Equinox. The seeming delay allows for processing of your personal disruptions to surface to allow for your release; this release we speak of is fear or guilt. When you maintain that you are guilty the source of your guilt lies in the past, you are not looking inward. The past is not in you. Your strange associations to it have no meaning in the present yet you let them (fear and guilt) stand between you and your freedom where you are bound by your own limitation based on an old belief system. Jupiter and Mars conjunct in the degree of the flag, seen turning into an eagle (as prophesied by the Mayans); This means that those spiritually aligned or those awakening will exemplify dynamic incarnation of new social values in individuals whereas shadow (fear) will release and reform into light. During this conjuncture, if you so desire, will be the perfect time to charge your spiritual power (reboot your heart-mind into full gear).

The field of awareness that is arising before you is very important and you need to open your 'heart-mind' to this awareness and get out of your intellect (thoughts-thinking). In order to see with 'new' eyes you must have new lenses and with new lenses comes a new vision ~ Ena mutation must take place, (Ena (pronounced enya) means the eye with the eye). The depth of the eye is the heart and within that heart is your mind or pure consciousness it is soulfulness, it is your essence. It is true love (purity in formation); it is the Mother beating with your physical heart, the heartbeat of love calls its true partner, Father light. Love is light and light is truth. You return to the One, in the One, by the One and for the One where you evolve to a 'higher' level of your 'true' existence into Christ Consciousness (the second coming of Christ).

The highest form of human intelligence is to observe yourself without judgment. Judgment connects you to cause and effect (Karma). Whereas in a world reborn, your consciousness (a new vision) has ascended to the 5th dimension; transcendence of thought is one of the objectives humanity has set for this life time and it is one who has transcended thought that can be in the world without attachment with pure intent of Being. When you're Being, it is a state of grace and a direct connect to the Source; all your vitality (energy) focuses on every current moment and past or future does not exist. Remember that your world is an extension of your consciousness (your conditioned mind patterns) and it can change based on your 'changed' thought(s). When you understand that consciousness is the only reality, then you'll understand the universal connection to all things and no thing. This is where space, time, energy and where the whole universe percolates from within each of your souls as an extension of Divine Creation and a world within your consciousness is a new foundation of a world reborn, ever expanding and contracting contributing to a new vision where light illuminates and love rules! YOU have the ability individually and collectively to charge your spiritual power (your soulfulness) with a new vision (ena) and begin to live fully and completely, in a world reborn (birthing itself anew in every moment) where equality and abundance and true love are your ongoing experiences.

With new sight comes a renewed body vibration. By sending unconditional love to yourself you will begin to ascend into your light body frequency which resonates within the 5th dimension. A new resonance of energy will surface as you move into the upper four energy centers in your physical body where a spiritual renaissance will engage. As you move out of power, prestige and personal acquisition (the lower 3 energy centers within your golden compass (internal senses) the natural progression is to move into liberty – by following your heart or awakening the heart-mind, the upper four chambers where you will connect to your etheric body.

To follow the heart means that you live in truth, to live in truth one must have faith and to have faith, requires tapping into your internal power while engaging your external senses bringing into alignment your 12 senses and you return to union (the Union of Being), to love and to truth. Remember that truth happens in the now moment, it is sustained by allowance as you move into a new understanding where 'doing' has no attachments, no burdens and Being allow you to have a foot in both worlds (nature or nurture or heaven on earth).

We have shared with you many universal truths - "truth cannot be learned only recognized, and knowing about something gives it form (which is illusion) and pure knowing is formless, it is creation awaiting manifestation based on your desires." When you return to the One, by the One and in the One, you will have fulfilled the Prophecy of Union. The Hologram is the fulfillment of the Prophecy of Union and it is comprised of all people, all ideas, and all aspects of creation from the beginning of time to the end of time. It is a model for all people to see, visualize and experience within your own life experiences and within all you do, say and touch. Remember, you either join with truth (being) or illusion (doing). A new vision, a world reborn, requires changing your thinking and allowing awareness (consciousness) to watch the sub-consciousness and in this observation your soulful self or your spiritual power will rise. We are the council of nine and we have enjoyed our time with you....And so it is.....
