The Emerald Rose – Birthing the New Renaissance Unfolding 84,000 Beams of Light

As you sit in contemplation of your world the spaces between your reality and your thoughts attract collective mire; contemplation is the mental activity behind all creation and is necessary mind training for implementations of your desires. You have come to a place of great contemplation in your creative process. Here are a few steps regarding your contemplative creative process:

- 1. Spirit is created by self contemplation and as you know, your invisible source is called spirit (pure consciousness) which decided to expand in a world of form*
- 2. What you contemplate your Being (life) it becomes; a universal law is, 'what you believe you become and what you become you believe.' Contemplation by spirit results in the manifestation of what is being contemplated (thought of or desired).*
- 3. You are individualized Spirit allowing to recognize your own divinity. You came from non-being (spirit), to being (form), by self contemplation of spirit.*
- 4. It is in your best interest to contemplate that the Law of Your Being, BECOMES the Law of Your Being. Thereby using creative power of thought to maintain your unity with spirit rather than to create a separate sense of self (ego) that is cut off from Spirit and suffers from poverty & limitation.*

The creative process in YOU is a self actualized individual. Contemplation (thought/desire) is a tool for you to use; not something you do.

Let us remind you that you are the world, the world is in you and you are inside of the world. Be your own sovereign self as you are within your own Center of Being (the center is the heart). When you move outside of your Center you separate from your Soulful Self. Taking back your power is not difficult only if you think it is. This is your greatest obstacle ~ thinking based on limitation. Your time space continuum has come to the still point of the Photon Band within your Milkyway and has been prophesied as "new earth." What is happening right now is that the moon and the sun and the sun and the moon and the moon and the sun are exchanging energy via these eclipses as Cancer aligns to imbue your planet. Cancer is a feminine energy and you are being moonstruck laced with antiquity (shadow and doubt) as your belief systems are challenged the moon is calling you to the void to let go of all that does not support you; she is here to nurture you. You may feel as if your old ways of coping no longer work for you and how you prepared yourself in the past no longer work for you. It is true; it will not work for you. A new day has dawned! What does not support you automatically falls away to make room for your New Earth.

Your old ways are emotional body alignments (past) and the projections of preparation via your mental body (future) are being eclipsed by the Still-point or Void or Now moment. 84,000 beams of light are being stimulated from within your heart center (this is the Emerald Rose) via these eclipses. In truth, the crystal membrane has initiated on your planet beginning on July 22, 2009 igniting the crystalline network; a unique network of 'crystals' which can process Light flowing from the outer surface of the membrane (Earth) to the interior membranes, and from the inner membranes to the outer surface. On a grand scale Light is flooding your world inside and outside of you which allows the Masters of Light to repair and regenerate interstellar connections within your grey matter with resonating crystalline structures for image and information processing. As such you may feel at odds with yourself. In other words, the left brain can't cope with light changes as it's losing its orientation ~ the brain is morphing into Light ~ ever expanding light!

This is the time you've been waiting for; the galactic doorway is moving into harmony (otherwise known as the violet ray or light). The inner expansion within your inner being on all dimensions are going through the Sirian doorway which initiate your seven sacred seals (7 senses within your body) to begin to morph into varied colors of light frequencies; you become a rainbow child. What is required here is your patience - this trinity of existence is morphing into something you can't even imagine. Only the trinity can be aligned to work in harmony; all other forms are ego expressions of conflict based on your perceptions (conditioned mind patterns) getting caught up in the collective chaos. Physically these eclipses affect your physical body via 1. Cranial (mental body), 2. Heart (awareness), and 3. Abdominal (past - feeling body).

The heart center right below the scapula is the root point for your lotus stem to begin to push up into your Center of Truth (Satya) and into Unity Consciousness (Kripalu - between your brow) and move out into the Crown Center (Ananda - Bliss). When you move outside your Center (heart) you separate from your Soulful self. It is time to find your heart in the reality of present moments. The emerald rose is unfolding in your heart center ~ healing tones from the celestial realms are being sung ongoing which engage 144,000 points of light penetrating your heart (coined the angelic gateway). As these frequencies churn within your heart center these tones transform into golden light where purification merges with your current frequency and your Lotus Flower begins to emerge from the mucky waters of nocturnal green. Color is tone, in this case the tone is 999 MHz which emulates 999 varied colors of green; green is a healing force. Healing is only forgiveness - a gift to you for balanced alignment. If emotions are not healed you are living in separation; if you have questions you are in separation otherwise all you know is LOVE.

The frequency of Love is 528 MHz which corresponds to your heart chakra and is in the tone of "C", the inner color of your heart chakra is magenta this is the tone of "C to the power of 3(trinity)" and the number 13. The number 13 is the Goddess number and the 13th tribe of Israel. The children of Israel are the Children of Light (the children of the sun and herald the violet ray). Recall if you will your Golden Compass your seven senses; the root corresponds with earth it affects the adrenal glands in your physical embodiment and opens the seal of union (which we sometimes refer to as your homecoming). The ascension doorway is the heart center which is the seal of remembrance it works on the thymus glands and is where the Emerald Rose resides. The sisters of the Rose and the Brothers of the Oak have come forth, be aware of their presence as you move through nature.

The lotus blossom on the earth is represented in 7 treasures (your inner senses) and each lotus petal has 84,000 veins and each vein radiates 84,000 beams of light and in-between each petal there is a heart field of a billion gems (pods of light). Each gem radiates 1,000 beams of light which on average is 840,000 beams of light. The beams of light are transforming energy folding back into the trinity as the #3 which heralds unconditional love. So the possibilities of creation are literally infinite. We have informed you that we're not sure what your New Earth will look like as you've all thrown out the old blueprint and you're creating as you go! As you exhale, the Golden Light receives imprints and pulsations of higher dimensions which in act Prime Creators program (love); the Golden Age is the Golden Mind (Christ Light) and is from the Highest of dimensions where white gold light is formed and created into the picture of pure spiritual abundance.

The voice within is the “Christ Within” who is the keeper of the violet flame and who opens the heart to love which brings devotion, trust, love, respect and cherishes you with grace in every step, every breathe and every turn on your path. The Christ within is your deepest center (your sacred heart), and brings you into alignment with ever expanding heart light. As you rest within deeply, you’ll find this energy waiting in silence, in peace and you’ll rest in contemplated pleasure. It is the divine feminine flame that holds you in spiritual enlightenment and abundance. She radiates a golden aura and reminds you that all are ONE!

New Renaissance (renaissance means change)...what does that mean? The 6th Golden Age was Camelot, a vision where all people were treated equal, where honor was truly a noble quality. The Camelot legends portray the cycles of Nature and your own personal nature, which reflect the elemental aspects of your lives in alliance with nature to empower your personal quest.*

The Camelot legends represent an alliance of all the elements of nature and therefore your natural self. It merges the personal, spiritual and psychological aspects of your self into the hologram of life where you have expanded reasoning, spiritual consciousness and heightened awareness begins as such:

- Ecological awareness reconnects humanity to nature.
- Global consciousness connects humanity to each other, to histories mythologies and philosophies as well as your own inner knowingness.
- It provides you with greater spiritual expansion and exploration of self which leads to greater awareness of Light and Truth.
- An age of Light draws you closer to a clear horizon where another cycle of life birthing life is progressing.

Camelot has always been an idea or a dream waiting to birth itself, a catalyst (energy) for global harmony, clarity, and unity. A dream where peace resides and love is the governing allegiance you live. These were the ideas that your forefathers declared “one nation under God indivisible and liberty for all.” That was the vision or dream. Now is the time as the Light draws on a “clear horizon” or dawning of awakening. We will continue with your Camelot journey in our next discourse.

Here is a message from your elementals kingdom: ~ we are the elementals speaking to you from inner worlds on and off your planet. The shifts that are upon you are specific to your natural essence of the frequencies of light that flow through your embodiment. The Emerald Rose is but a glance of your unveiled mysteries of light, but if you so choose to hold onto the shadow, this experience will not stop the light from coming through merely postpone it. As always, it is in your readiness and in your truth and we have no power over that. We are you; we are frequencies of light beams that radiate from your middle world through physical transformation as flora. Our Mother’s are Lotus and Rose – from them we have opportunities to transform ourselves into varied fragrances that allure you to recognize your own essence, your own light. Aroma Therapy is key in opening up blockages that prevail within your physical form, but moreover within your emotional embodiment. The emotional stature of your feeling centers hold you hostage and in limited belief of your truth. We say SNIF, SNIF, SNIF, and changes within your royal palace of the violet temple set within your Sacred Heart (Christ Light) will release the shackles that are keeping you from your true self. Who is that you ask? It is you and YOU ARE LOVE in physical form. All of Nature is considered the Great Attractor; it is set up to worship and allure you to see the world through the eyes of the Beloved.

*Fragrant and wet no time for regret, we'll sing your song of love.
As you come near, we'll eliminate your fear and bless you with our scent.
Delicate and rare no two to compare, we are as you, unique.
The fragrant is pure it helps with the lure in remembrance of the cure.
The cure we share is love you see, for that is all we are.
You too one day will find your way as you allow your love to bloom within your sheltered doom.
Doom does not exist unless you persist resistance of your light.
For Light is Love and that is true and knowing this will make you new.
For you are we and we are you and this our tale true.
Go on your way and remember to play sharing smiles throughout your day.
~ We are jasmine tuberose ~*

We will thank the elemental ones for their message and love. In conclusion of this discourse we will share with you the trinity of activation that is currently in progress. The activation in turn ignites 4 points of universal truths and humanities internal star points of your physical matrix thereby setting up the guaranteed path to the One, for the One, by the One and in the One.

- Point 1 – lifting the veil of illusion and fantasy (dream state)
- Point 2 – clearing physical meridian blockages to flow freely returning your divine flow to its origination
- Point 3 – ability to tap into universal vision stimulating your imagination and creative alliance
- Point 4 – Allowance to clearly claim who you are and call to you your divine heritage of truth, love and unity

So what is this new Renaissance? It's the 7th Golden Age - It's a dream, a vision, a hope for a new earth. A time for letting go of all that does not support you and time for allowance to reconnect to your divine flow and your divine heritage. Truth awaits you, from a journey on a winding path called illusion. The angels say, "Too truly see is to see with the eyes of the heart and to truly see, you must allow yourselves to be wrong, to be lost. Only then, may you begin to open your eyes. One need not leave this world to reach the divine; you must touch the divine here on earth. Upon enlightenment you cease to burn, rather one becomes the fire, lighting the way for others."

You are responsible for your own actions, your sacred contracts are rewritten as you choose love and unveiled mysteries and magical powers are at your disposal.... and so it is.....
