The Hidden Secrets The journey of self acceptance begins at the root

The Golden Rule of your Universe is to 'love first' without expectation and without exception (treat others the way you'd like to be treated). The hidden secret is you are Love, you are Light, and you are God's on a journey without a distance. The original planners of Earth were members of the family of Light. The family of Light created the information center (akashic records) where galaxies could contribute genetic codes which would be stored through frequencies and through the genetic process (DNA). It is time to re-mind you of the original tribes, how it is held in your DNA and cellular memory of the temple of God (the human body). The absorption of Light is restoring your bodies DNA to its original state prior to the shadow altering the human cellular structure. Your immune structure is a light body that holds the keys to enlightenment. Your breath and your ingestion of food intake either nourishes your body with light (live energy) or pollutes it with debris (processed food and negative thoughts), which slows down your metabolism and expansion of your light body.

Liquid presence (we called air) is consumed with particles of gratitude which is pure nourishment allowing source energy to circulate through every cell and ground you to the electromagnetic frequencies of Gia (earth) in the field of love and magnetism. You are the living library, you know the codes, and you have the keys that unlock the truth; the keys are grounded into the wisdom of matter (your carbon base). The Earth is the living library and all the resources are contained herein and the symbols are in front of you, but you must be living in truth and love in order to access the keys.

The only way to get to truth is to let go of illusion. If you think you've found the truth, you may want to pause a moment, because truth is not a simple fact. It is laden with fantasy and emotion. More than fantasy, truth has many layers of implications in psychological complexities. Insanity and love are sacred principles that titer on the same frailty of balance. Two key factors: 1) truth cannot be learned only recognized and 2) darkness is the alchemical truth of consciousness. You are creative beings of love and light and have come to this planet to discover this for yourself and your earth.

At the root of creativity is an impulse to understand, to make sense of random and often unrelated details. One needs to be still enough, observant enough, and aware enough to recognize life moving along in the world as your own mirrored reflections. You must have the courage to face yourself in each moment with grace, compassionate forgiveness and understanding. False identification occurs when you identify with the tools of perceptions instead of the true self. The journey of self acceptance begins at the root, where the Sacred Heart of Christ calls your spirit to return to love. There is a full moon rising in your heart chambers (the emerald rose) as the frequencies of your planet begin to morph into truth. You are on the cusp of home coming guided by the celestial frequencies called prelude. The age of the Arian demons has past while the age of the angels come to the tribe of Blue Fire; the first of the initiators.

Blue Fire is Michael energy; your universe is considered the Michael universe. This is the center of the galaxies where Sirius transmits its energy (the blue star). Archangel Michael is the Prince of Archangels and the supporter of Faith. He plays a very important role in your universe. The Christ Michael is the name of the Source of your Universe and Archangel Michael is an extension of this Being. Michael stands in total commitment to your Illumination, supporting your truth, and your I AM Presence (God selves), until you accept for yourself. The host of many within the Council of Nine have shared with you that 2009 is the Year of 11 aligned with the frequencies of Faith. Faith is Michael's feminine energy and this divine interjection is being immersed into and through the hearts of humanity. It's up to you to accept it (open) and it does not matter if you're not seemingly awakening (some are going along for the ride unaware of the gifts available to them), and yet it is your free will that holds you hostage to your current creations and experiences.

The teachers of Light speak onto the world for they hold the keys that unlock the density of the time-codes. Transcendence of thought is the name of the game called enlightenment and ascension is allowance of the heart-light opening. Discovery of the time-codes will unlock the doorway of love and illumination. Remember that ascension is a feeling not a place, it's an idea that transcends your current understanding through evolution of your belief systems. It's time to open your heartmind and unleash your light via your Seven Inner Senses called the Sacred Path. The path is your life, the journey is about your choices and your ascension is the awakened one.

The Golden Compass manifested in Crop Circles on July 12, 2009 (in the UK) signaling your call to activate your inner path (7 senses within). There is a full moon rising in your emerald rose (heart) and the emerald rose is where resolution is found on the ladder of heavens gates on earth. You are the holy ones that lead the path of the four kings of heavens gates. These are the Stars of the Cross (the Seven Arrows) and Sacred Path. The 13 grandmothers hold the energy of truth where life began on your earth plane; By direction of the divine feminine (Magdalene) the metamorphic crystals that hold the Christ Light are in alignment to ignite the Om Crystal of Healing and the Blue Crystal of Knowledge to the 144,000 grid matrix on 9/9/09. This metamorphic crystalline grid will awaken the Cosmic Christ Grid (yellow crystal) and the Earth-Keeper Crystal (Pink trinity) activating the Atlantian and Lemurian temples in various parts of your planet and within you!*

 6 directions and 1 core making up the 7 arrows (4 directions are the cross)*

*North = Wisdom, Buffalo, White
East = Illumination, Eagle, Yellow
South = Innocence, Mouse, Green
West = Introspection, Bear, Black
Sky = Liberation, Dove, Blue
Earth = Humility, Ant, Violet
Core = Mastery, Snake, Fuchsia*

The power of light is activated in the heart of summer, open your emerald heart to hear your intuitive mind messages and chant words that bring love to your vibration. The water world will speak for Terra and embrace the healing rays of earth and sky calling tribes of the Blue-Fire (legions of Michael) to awaken. The Blue Star (Regulus) at sunrise on August 22nd opens the galactic emerald heart of Terra (earth mother a new revolution) while the seven sisters hold the violet temple activating the sacred triangle. The sacred triangle within the human kingdom is located in between your brow activating Unity Conscious. This stimulates your pineal gland creating the rainbow bridge (temples of truth) from your brow to your heart center and the eyes of illumination share in the light of truth bringing your heart into power. The fulfillment of the Prophecy of Union engages communion (coming into union) and transformation, transmutation and transcendence are now in the eye of the beholder. The eye of the beholder is YOU (the awakening one) and now you know, the moon and the sun is in your eyes, the iris holds the key to truth and the crystalline matrix shifts your encoding heartmind.

You are being rewired, clarified and crystallized. The voltage of energy coming in is part of the transfiguration of quantum particles that will be released within liquid presence (air) and ever available to you. As you breathe it in it stimulate your cells, oxygenates your blood and allows all that does not serve you to automatically shed itself. Transfiguration means exalt and glorify!

The teachers of Light come forward as you begin to allow the truth (truth is love) to spew from your voice boxes. Your Star Brethren which include aspects of yourself work with you to unlock the destiny of time codes and the archaic encodements that are resident in your cells are seeking release and will come to the surface. The ancient encodements are embedded with resistance and limited belief. Every time you are in resistance of your desires the impulse of struggle overcomes you; this is a shadowed belief caused by the sins of the generation (SIN is separation from your Innocent Nature), passed down from lifetime to lifetime. When you are at the threshold of release, predominance engages and struggle heightens. Struggle is encodements and they must be released (transmuted) with love and no judgment. Just say to you, "how does this serve me?" If it does not serve you, let it go. Transmute means to change form one nature to another. It will change from a fixed state to a flexible state. Use this as a calibration; there is no need to be right. Just allow and life will begin to shift.

The Truth is YOU ARE HOME; Home is where the heart is. You came to this planet as an extraterrestrial entity to be part of the evolutionary creative energy of this universe that is manifested within the planet. The earth plane has a plethora of abundance that is shared so you can grow into multidimensional beings of higher intelligence.

Change is why you incarnated; you wanted to be a part of a new earth creation. You asked to be here; you are multidimensional and exist on many layers of time and space. Each region allows a part of your being to become a spirit with a mind and heart where there is thought and feeling connected to it. So you became a sentient being in the multiple realms. The silver strand that connects your manifestation of being to the other layers is unaltered by your connection to time and space realities. The central strand is your collective soul. It is collective because you are manifesting on multidimensional time fields within and outside of the time space continuum and varied time fields. Your sentients is being expanded from reaction to creation.

In creation you become a higher order Being. Therefore you create intentional thought and feelings to desired contextual form to manifested focus reality. This process follows the law of attraction and inclusion operating within polarized dimensions. You had a dream of falling from grace separated by a veil of forgetfulness, but the time has come for your truth to be unified as your homecoming awaits you.

The follow-up is to stay true to your guidance (this includes your dream states (day dreams, night dreams) and meditations). You are synchronizing with millions of Truth Holders which include Earth-keepers, Earth-angels, Way Showers, Light workers, Grid Holders, Golden, Rainbow, Crystal & Indigo children as well as the Great White Brotherhood (all 999,000) and your cosmic family of all. The breakthrough begins on 8/29/09 (which reduces to 1 – meaning unity) and builds up to 9/9/2009 (which is 11), co-creating the greatest download of Akashic Light your planet has ever experienced. It is imperative that you do NOT buy into drama; it will call the shadowed illuminated ones to your dreams/illusions. Stay peace-full, stay in love, invite no fear and let your heart-light shine! You each hold pieces of the akashic light in your DNA as does your Tula (the ancient mother) and her daughter-selves that's why it's been so difficult to find. Remember the journey to self acceptance begins at the root.

.... and so it is.....

As per your comments, the written discourse does not document all the information that was given during our session; however it does highlight the key notes. The Angels that were introduced in the beginning of this discourse were:

Angels of Reversal

Angels of Illuminated Shadow

Angels of Ultimate Release

Angels of Magnetic Resonance

Angels of Discernment

Angels of Courage and Conviction

Angels of Peace "blue fire"

...and they have come as the final step before regeneration.....
