Initiating Seven Points of Expression The Pathway of Consciousness

The last quarter of your year is about dealing with truth which can be very impacting. The collective consciousness is being held hostage by self indulgence in shadowed halls of resistance. You may feel as if you're drowning in space-time; this space time is called quantum physics which deals with the hyperspace within and outside of you. Hyperspace ~ all those years that seemingly vanished in hyperspace are vaulted in your memory banks of cells contracting in fields of possibilities (the void or hyperspace, compressed and unable to replicate fully or in a healthy light only because of your resistance. Now and only now are you being forced to deal with your narcissism! It is a time of trust and transitions you from the way of dominance to love and reorder. Now is the time of movement of galaxies, the turning of stars, and the transitions of societies in order for your contracts to be fulfilled and honored.

Children of love and light you are coming into focus and the time has come to speak your truth. Jupiter now crosses the right eye of the dragon Draco. This ushers in downfall, dishonor and the loss of prestige as acumen the sting of the scorpion sharpens. All who have thought this time would be easy are concerned; the heart of compassion steps out and sees the world in disarray as the wind of change breathes harder and harder. After the ides of December the stinger comes out of the tail of the scorpion; all the aggression that has been unwarranted will be dealt with swiftly. Three days before the winter solstice is the point of renunciation at sunset. There is a combination of planetary change and this time of compassion will be needed as TRUTH demands its voice moving into the higher vibration of the celestial realms; the higher heart. You must be willing to open your heart through the seven layers or vortexes that restrict the pathway to the sacred heart of Christ.

Humanity is walking on the razor edge of light ~ you're blending your being as one and the indifferent energies are your own understanding. Release your thoughts, go with your heart, allow the sound to take you to the open door and use your heart key to open your life to the Seventh Golden Age. You are what you've been waiting for; rise in your light, in your truth and allow yourself to awaken to truth; which is unconditional love. The ankh is the eye of the needle and you hold the ankh within your heart light, this is the key to the heart light and your passage from time and space.

The ancients come now to guide and to usher you in to the new time, new day, and new awareness of consciousness that has laid dormant within your cells until now. There is multidimensionality of what you are and what you feel and the importance is focused on the ever present moment (NOW). The Winter Solstice brings great changes and you are finding that you are being awakened to the next level of consciousness. It is coming to you quickly through mental and emotional awareness. You have clearly become aware of the witness aspect of you as you see your folly and regain momentum by choosing again or seeing potential outcomes in another way; you are seeing through the veil and seeing through the heart center. By seeing into the heart you see into the center and there you will find clarity and quality of consciousness that has a physical powerful awareness that sometimes has you pulling back because you are questioning your reality. You pull back into the illusion and away from that which will complete you and at best you often decide to default into a reality you're familiar with, rather than a higher level of awakened consciousness down a path that is not familiar.

Time is the pathway of consciousness and opens to the enlightened state where you are becoming what you are meant to be. This pathway is made up of light and carries consciousness through your emotions which become the dream state and the veil of illusion once again dances in your reality. You begin to realize your own folly as you are no longer content with habits of the past; they do not serve your higher vibration and consciously you are aware, while unconsciously you animate through life on auto-pilot often wondering how you got to your destination. All that you are comes from frequencies of sound which emanates from your heart beat and from the heart beat of the universe; you are being danced by the universal harmonics that are infinite in scope and complexity and texture. It is the texture in the topological field of light and fields of love that enters into your waveform. It is this waveform that you are and in this wave you are a beam of light (soul).

Your frequency or this rhythmic harmony attract to you the magnetic existence and the textures (field of light) of color spectrums, fragrances and wonders (atoms) and you morph into what you are in linear existence outside of time and space. You are following and paving a new pathway for yourself that allows you to speak to the ancients, your future selves, the elementals of the natural world and beings in hyper-space. There is always a gap in each step, each breath, etc, which allow a choice point to choose which rhythmic pulsations to move fully into your new body suit (beingness) as you leave the debris of old behaviors and patterns that no longer serve you. Soul expression is here; you are to go forward to feel the void; a new vibration, the open space and to feel love which allows your flowering/blossoming experience. You become aware of life in you and around you and in this awareness you become fulfilled (awakened/enlightened).

In this moment allow your thoughts and emotions to connect to the love between the open door and the heart. Your heart chakras are being cleared of conflict, chaos, control and drama. It becomes clear when the energy rises to pure liquid light to be expressed through the voice of your spirit. You are a master of sacred polarity, of ideas, desire, and aspirations and of inspiration where the twin flame of your inner being obtains illumination and enlightenment.

The ignition into the process allows the fire, the Holy Spirit, kundalini, prana, chakdi, chi, ki, vibration, cosmic energy (call it what you will), to move through the chakras and spin those energy vortexes into higher frequencies. With the column of light you are spinning spherical chakra centers with expressed creation and expanding your aura (field of consciousness) calling in your multidimensional selves to unite and integrate with the primary energy vortex of your soulfulness which is resident in your human body.

There are seven points of expression designed for manifestation of third dimensional energy mutation. These seven points of expression are often gifted to you through metaphors. We use them as a tool to activate codes within your physical body (not only present in your DNA, but throughout your entire biology). Metaphors are triggers (codes) to open and stimulate your silica within your brain as lights flashing on and off where the wave of golden thought (purity) is released from your heart mind through a central galactic wave pulse activated by your inspirations. The war within must come to an end in order for peace and light to work through you. The teachers of light speak forth the message of truth to those who are aware; the resources you have will come to you as an immense wave pressing to the shoreline; this wave breaks old patterns as you allow this golden thought to activate your heartmind in loving gratitude and surrender. Take heed to know that if you resist you will hold yourself back trapped in old power called collective chaos (paradigms). You are facing a radical shift of power where a pathway is opening the energy of a million suns as cosmic light in its first wave; do remember that there is chaos in the heart of transformation.

The celestial bodies of the blue sun (angelic awakening) and the golden sun (humanity awakening) bring forth vibrant energy pulsations at sunrise and sunset for the doorways, star gates and transformation of impactful energies you're all feeling to prepare you for higher vibration awakening. The Pleiadian's, Sirian's and Arcturian's prepare gateways through Orion for the Andromedian to bring into higher light your true frequency of love. Harmony through conflict is a 4th ray energy that your planet earth is built upon, thereby the concept of the polar shift is to allow humanity to understand the magnetic vibration within the earth will move from side to side (pole-pole) and as she shifts so to do you. At the end of your month, the second Taurus moon comes forth and brings with it the second survival values in understanding where you are and you are to become; this brings social changes and financial disruption into the world shifting the fifth night energy to the sixth (focus too much on the material world) with the vibration of the figure eight which means a phase of life as you know it is about to end, setting up for your 12th month.

You have been under frequency control by technology of the lower vibrations through the energies of television. That energy is now shifting as you are awakening to the new light structures that are bringing forth the higher light of awakening. The seven points of expression are ushering you through varied holographic pathways through the sacred triangle and the seven sacred stars. The pyramid is the third dimensional representation of the triangle. In the core of this sphere is a near infinite acceleration point which allows for energy expression also known as the Holy Trinity. Understanding the triangle is of extreme interest because there are three primary energies that are emanating into your earth systems from your perspective night sky.

- 1. The Great Bear and Big Dipper are unfolding energies of Shamballa which allow your 'will and purpose' force to be directed.*
- 2. Sirius and Orion system allows "love and wisdom" and use of light in spiritual service in it's highest values towards your spiritual purpose and service to the One, for the One, by the One and in the One; unity consciousness.*
- 3. The Seven Sisters (Pleiades) bring together the energies connected to the other two triangle points and allow for the focus to meet humanities needs; these are the primary energies that allow the triangle to move through the galaxy for manifestation and creation.*
 - a. In other words triangles manifest creation through the crystalline formation of the tetrahedron matrix expanding and contracting and shape shifting in every moment; this too is happening within your embodiment.*

The thirteen steps to enlightenment are completed through the sacred triangle (trinity) and being lead by the 13 grandmother energy and the seven sacred senses. The 13 grandmothers are the 13 tribes of Israel; the 12 frequencies of light bodies expressed from the One. The 13 grandmothers is an archetypal energy that represents a rebirth for the Children of Light; the covenant of light is humanities covenant of the "True Israel" the children who express different light emanations, yet work with the 7th ray of creation (Christ Consciousness) which is know as the illumination. This light emits from the heartmind to transmutation of the dense mind (human condition; brain) where the pineal gland opens the amethyst crystal located in your reticular formation (the core of the brain) and imitates the crown of glory (God mind). The 13 grandmothers gave birth to Sun Energy but came from the original Sun (Central Sun) which birthed the Son of God in human form who came to save the Children of Light (the 13 grandmother energies emanate from Angola, Africa). The 13 bloodlines of the Illuminati dynasties have held financial stronghold globally for their own control. These boundaries are crumbling and will be revealed in your life time. Who created the United Nations is key as they control the two major U.S. political parties and families that invented and control modern-day Israel masked by deceit and greed.

Under the 7th Ray Leadership (Christ Consciousness), the race of Israel is to go forth to demonstrate the unity of the Father Mother elements of physical and spiritual rebirth. The objective was to process the old patterns (programs) to be brought to appoint of completion (current systems that exist must collapse and be rebuilt; yourselves included). Then you'll move beyond the planetary evolution into the Star Kingdoms of infinite possibilities. The land of Israel is the land of consciousness of Light (Sea of Crystal), which is your Milky Way (the Central Sun)! The number Seven is highly effective in your NOW times, we highly recommend you focus on this number and allow the Christ Consciousness to lead you through the shadowed recesses of your doubting mind-thought and false belief systems. Seven is embedded within your sacred geometry and ever present in and around you. Here are some examples:

- 7 openings in your head, 7 cavities in your heart, 7 divisions in your eyes, 7 layers in the retina and 7 layers in your skin.
- 7 days in a week, 7 colors in the spectrum, 7 rays aligned with 7 archangels and masters, 7 virtues, 7 seas (7 corners of the seas), 7 chakras, 7 senses within your body, 7 wonders of the world, 7 deadly sins, 7 signs of revelation, 7 planets in your orbit, 7 celestial hosts, 7 sisters (Pleiades), 7 evolutionary planets, 7th Golden Age, 7 digits in your phone number, and the 7 Steps of Alchemy.

Seven is a significant number and is viewed as an extremely positive sign and means you should expect miracles (miracles are a natural expression of love, they happen involuntarily in the presence of love) and is a sign that the angels are working with you and cheering you on.

You have moved from the gateway of 11:11 to 12:12; the doorway of the Golden Age. This gateway initiates 9 cobalt blue circles, pulsating within your orbit, blinking off and on flooding your planet with light. 9 symbolizes completion and is the number of the universe. Within the spin of your planet initiate 8 golden rays of light (as above so below) which will begin to fix into your earth matrix by the Winter Solstice which ushers in the balance between the spiritual and material worlds – it signifies strength and perseverance to see things through. Thereby, allowing the 16 Golden Circles fixing into your matrix as well as your planet symbolizing the destruction of the old and the birth of the new and the re-union with the Source of Life as you surrender into the River of Light (your liquid presence).

In conclusion of this cycle, the program Israel and a New program Victory will signal the gathering of the tribes of the spiritual Israel, to take place in the sacred land of the West, which is the region of the original grids used by the Ascended Masters (Christ Consciousness and Buddha Mind). Upon this new grid a new crystallization will be created as the cycles of the East-West coming to receive that living Light of Christ and the Brotherhood of Light reigning upon the planet and imitating once again, the Covenant of Light which is your true inheritance.

Beloved children of Love and Light; your time has come and that time is now; and so it is.....
